Dear Parent/Carer

February holiday arrangements

I write to remind you that the February school holiday will run from Monday 8 February to Monday 15 February, inclusive.

Please note that keyworker childcare at school will not be available during the holidays and you should make your own arrangements.

While we await confirmation from Scottish Government of when schools will reopen for all pupils, should current restrictions remain in place, keyworker provision will resume from Tuesday 16 February.

Yours faithfully

Andy Gray
